United States Commissioner Judd yesterday held for the federal grand jury a Korean named Sik, who is accused of harboring an alien. He is the son of a woman who was tried by the Korean court for her part in the Korean revolution. He was held for six days before the federal grand jury, and will be held for a longer period.

Prisoning Inspector Michelson yesterday swore to a complaint charging T. Schwartz with having "unlawfully conducted a certain wash tray in that certain building in Palolo Valley, then and there not being a hotel or restaurant kitchen or building used for industrial purposes, and did then and there violate the provisions of section twenty of ordinance six."

Former Rose has summoned Fred Jackson, Wm. Welsh, J. O. Vierra, U.
Yonson, H. J. Holmes and James T.
Hick as a jury to hold an inquest over the remains of Adolph Kroll, the child who was run over by an auto and died in Queen's Hospital of lockjaw, resulting from injuries. The jury will meet tonight and examine witnesses.
The chauffeur was in the employ of Mrs.
Harriet Coleman-Castle. The child was the son of Rev. Leopold Kroll of St.
Andrew's cathedral.

The soon, the part-Chinese prisoner, who escaped from a park gang and served away on the Sierra, was apprehended by wireless and brought back from San Francisco on the Lullaby by Billy Wood, was pardoned yesterday by the Governor, thus releasing him from the custody of County Jailor Asch. But this was a leap from the frying pan into the fire, for he was immediately taken into custody by High Sheriff Hunt, under whom he will have to serve out an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years, which in this case will be about ten years. He may receive indeterminate sentences on amount of twenty years for sugar bags which he carried and cashed before he left for the camp.

Honolulu Lodge, No. 416, B. P. O. E., will meet in Elks' Hall at half-past seven this evening.

Polymers a Circumvent, No. 1, I. O.
O. F. will meet in Odd Fellows' Hall at half-past seven this evening.

The rain yesterday was general all over Oahu and all the plantations from Aiea to Waikele received a thorough watering.

Governor Frear yesterday reappointed Hon. A. S. Cleghorn and Judge H. E.
Cooper members of the park commission, their terms having expired the day before.

Oahu Lodge, No. 1, K. of P., will meet in Knights of Pythias Hall, Beretania avenue and Fort street, at half-past seven this evening. Work in the second rank.

Governor Frear has appointed A. E.
Kanderson a delegate to the conservation congress and the national irrigation congress, to be held in Minneapolis and Pueblo in September.

The next business meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will be held at the home of Miss May E. Parry, 1641 Anapuni street, at half-past seven this evening. As this is the first "home" business meeting that the society has had for some time, a cordial invitation is extended to each member.

If there was any bear movement in stock of the Oahu plantation, that animal was gored yesterday in stock exchange circles and the bull took possession, sending the stock from 31-25, where it rested over night, to 32-25, many shares exchanging hands as the quotations went upwards. Oahu took a brace yesterday.

The board of health reports that during the sixteen days ended July 16 there were nine deaths from contagious diseases in Honolulu. Of these one was from typhoid fever, two from plague and six from tuberculosis. During the remaining fifteen days of the month two died from typhoid fever and four from tuberculosis.

The new University Club building will be formally opened tonight, when a dinner-dance is to be given by the members. About one hundred and fifty persons will assemble for the dinner and the dance will follow. Among those on the house committee who have the function in hand are Dr. Arthur Hodgins and Lieut. John McLeary.

Another Hawaii ditch, promoted by Frank Woods and worked out by James T. Taylor, the engineer, will soon be ready for its formal opening. While on a much smaller scale than the Hamo-kua ditches, it will be a big factor in developing lands in the upper sections of Hawaii. About three miles of ditches have been completed.

A cable was received by the district attorney yesterday from Washington granting ninety days' life beyond the date of the extension already made in behalf of murderer Wynne, the sailor who killed his mate, McKinnon, aboard the steamer Rosecrans. The execution had been set for September 5. A thorough investigation of the whole case will be made by the department of justice.

In the case of Henry Davis vs. Henry C. Brown, in which the latter is charged with tearing down signs on the former's property at Wahiawa, Judge Andrade yesterday fined the defendant $1 and costs, thus permitting the case to be taken to the higher courts, owing to a question of law having arisen needing higher authority to pass upon. The fining of Mr. Brown, under the circumstances, was technical. Castle & Withington appear for the defendant. Mr.
Brown declares that the offending signs were really put up by Davis on Brown's property, and the defendant therefore had a right to take them down.

PERSONALS.

Raymond C. Brown, inspector in-charge of the federal immigrant station, will return today on the Sierra concluding a tour of the world. He escorted five departed Portuguese back to the Azores.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth entertains for Princess Kawannakoa this afternoon at bridge. Col. Samuel Parker will give a luncheon at his Diamond Head home this evening for the princess.
Among Dr. Arthur Hodgins' dinner guests at the University Clubhouse opening this evening will be the Princess Kawannakoa.

ONE OF THE CROTONS.

The Park Attractions.

This evening Miss Ethel May, the sweetest singer ever engaged by the Park management, will sing "Just a Song at Twilight." It is an old favorite and will no doubt win for the little lady enthusiastic applause. Mr. Thompson will sing, by special request, "Casey Jones," an exceedingly rollicking song that is popular everywhere. Dyso and the Desmond will have new acts, songs and dances, which will delight the large audiences at this popular place of amusement. The attraction, aside from every other number on the bill, will be, however, the Freres Croton, strong men, said to be without peers.
Their work the early part of the week was little less than marvelous. There was a vein of comedy throughout the act, but the feats of strength were in no way dimmed by the antics of the two. There will be new feats in hand-balancing and other wonderful feats of strength tonight which no one should miss seeing.

The Empire Twins.

The latest and one of the best attractions at the Empire in several months will be called the "Empire Twins," and they are little girls of whom the Portuguese of Honolulu may well be proud. They have sweet, though not very strong, voices and they possess the grace of swans. A very pretty appearance they make on the stage, apparently unconscious of their surroundings. They will have a new turn tonight, in which they will introduce new songs and new steps. Carl Wallner will continue to delight the patrons of the Empire, and the motion pictures will prove educational as well as interesting.

PRINCESS ENTERTAINED FOR PRINCESS RELATIVE

Princess Kawannakoa was the guest of Princess Kalaniana'ole yesterday at Punalani, Waikiki, yesterday, at an elaborate luncheon, the decorations and repart being unusually attractive. The beautiful dining hall of the old home of the late Queen Dowager was used for the luncheon, the table being arranged in the form of a square, set around a bank of yellow coreopsis in the center with a three-foot border of maidenhair ferns surrounding this gorgeous setting.
Stewards of yellow tulle and asparagus were festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table and the table also was decorated with festoons of tulle. The lunch was complete with all the delicacies of land and sea, served in dishes of kono wood and tortoise shell, the latter being greatly admired by the guests, as they are an unusual table service.

The guests were Mrs. C. G. Long and Mrs. Marjorie of the Marine Corps, Miss Dreyfus, Miss McCarthy, Mrs. C. O.
Berger, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. George Smithies, Miss Mary Low, Mrs. Carl Widenam, Mrs. A. P. Taylor, Mrs. George Herbert and Miss Maggie McIntyre.

During the luncheon Mr. Samuel Parker and Allan Herbert came upon the party, and were such oldtime exquisites that the ladies would have been lost without them. Later in the afternoon Prince Kuhio, H. D. Brown and George Smithies dropped in for a health.

After luncheon Mrs. Walter Macfarlane sang "The Rose," and also "Dreamy Eyes," cleverly impersonating Anna Hehl. Miss Ada Rhodes played several piano selections and also rendered the "Merry Widow," while Miss Dreyfus impersonated the widow in a captivating manner. Mrs. Long also sang a couple of French songs.

Princess Kalaniana'ole wore a white velvet and mallow lace dress over rose-pink satin, and Princess Kawannakoa was dressed in white silk Parisian with a touch of white point d'esprit, and wore a pretty hat with pink roses.

FILIPINO SHOT SIX TIMES IN HAMAKUA.

A Filipino was shot on Mowee afternoon last by a fellow countryman on the road between Hamakua and Kuluhihale on Hawaii. The man had been quarreling at their house some time previously. The man was shot five or six times, the shots taking effect in the head and about the shoulders. He was reported to be very low at last accounts and it was believed that he would die from the effects of his injuries. Deputy Sheriff Overend is handling the case.
